

Providing quality and affordable die casting mold is always a big problem. This problem is particularly acute for larger molds. Since making these kind of molds need to spend a lot of time and expertise necessary, engineering companies with high technical capabilities and experience necessary to provide these types of items to be felt.

Jugi Company with long experience in the production and manufacture of the mold, is known this problem and with good engineering has stepped in to provide these molds. In these circumstances, with use hardware facilities available outside and inside the country has been able to supply valuable molds with the appropriate time and costs with sufficient accuracy to meet their needs and then providing these services primarily to other manufacturing companies and now Jugi is ready to provide services to applicants with a sufficient guarantee of quality and fastest time {gallery}4{/gallery}.